CODE OF CONDUCT

The organizing body of the Klironomia Hellenic Folklore in Canada seminars, will take every precaution for the safety of every participant, chaperone, and instructor, however, they will not be responsible for any individual or group supervision for the duration of, or following the seminars in Toronto. In addition, the administration will not be responsible or liable for any incident, accident or injury to anyone's person while participating or traveling to and from any of the conference designated, and special event locations.

All Participants/Chaperones/Directors must adhere to the following guidelines:

- Drug use is strictly prohibited at any time for the duration of the conference/seminars.
- Any damages that occur as a result of foul play to personal or public property are the sole responsibility and liability of the person or persons involved.
- There will not be any tolerance for disrespecting and hindering the learning of fellow participants.
- There will not be any tolerance for insubordinate behaviour directed to the guest instructors or to the organizers of the Klironomia dance seminars.
- There will be no alcohol consumption on the outdoor grounds of the University of Toronto campus. University police will enforce their own penalties whether you are of legal drinking age (19 years) or not.
- Chaperones and Directors are responsible for their groups' actions. The Klironomia Committee is not responsible to ensure that participants are in their scheduled classes. It is the responsibility of the Chaperones and/or Directors to be aware of the whereabouts of their students/participants at all times.

- Each participant must sign after reading the code of conduct (D2).
  - Please submit the following completed form with the application.
